WHY YOU NEED US ...

ASC will help you open the doors of communication with increased compassion and a broader understanding of the complexities of diversity in order to purposefully amplify your vision and broaden your reach.

Our workshop leaders bring a wealth of experience including equity facilitation, mediation, and conflict resolution certification, as well as years of experience facilitating equity work. They foster open, inclusive, and equitable communication in the workplace. Their work is designed to deepen understanding of what inclusion and equity means. They tailor their work to meet the unique needs of your company. And in the process, they aim to help you bridge the existing gaps to make your business more whole.

WHAT WE DO ...

Utilizing our specific certifications, passions, and skillsets, we offer workshops, staff trainings, and consultation that examine the complexities of intersectionality within your work culture in order to enhance professional relationships within your organization and with your clients.

HOW do our workshops work on ZOOM ?

Through Zoom we can run effective workshops in which we incorporate outside resources, and utilize breakout rooms, chat features, polls, as well as other online tools. Our workshops are designed to be interactive, action oriented, and engaging. Participants will walk away with clear goals, pledges, and other organization-aligned takeaways.

WHY workshops during COVID ?

- Renewed focus on these issues.
- People feeling less connected.
- Employees are stressed.
- Engage your employees more.

WHAT CHANGES YOU'LL SEE ...

-A safer, more open and inclusive work atmosphere.

-Tighter unity within your workplace; stronger bonds that foster positive morale and a bolder collective work ethic.

-Increased communication with an advanced, inclusive vocabulary for open dialogue and discourse in your workplace...

Among other benefits.
